

CHINA-BASED

PATHOLOGIST

Title: Pathologist

Location: Chengdu, China

Reports to: VP of Toxicology, Pathology, and Laboratory Animal Medicine

Qualifications:

- D.V.M. with relevant experience in contract toxicology
- D.A.C.V.P. certification preferred
- Fluency in Chinese language a plus

Responsibilities:

- Communicate with the Principal Investigator to prepare study protocols
- Prepare study protocol amendments as necessary
- Review in-life data on a frequent basis
- Review all pathology data to ensure compliance with the protocol, research proposals, and Standard Operating Procedures
- Respond to all quality assurance audits in the pathology area in the required time frame
- Participate in scheduled staff meetings
- Review training files of all necropsy technical staff
- Establish various training programs for technical staff
- Evaluate, microscopically, all study required tissues
- Communicate pathology findings to the Principal Investigator, verbally and via written report
- Assist the Principal Investigator in ensuring that all pathology raw data and specimens are archived upon finalization of the report
- Develop new procedures and technologies as required, including development of new Standard Operating Procedures and/or forms
- Publish the results of the studies
- Maintain an active involvement in professional pathology organizations
- Be knowledgeable in domestic and international pathology regulatory requirements

Email or fax your resume today to:
HR@frontierbsi.com or (301) 515-5562